Littlestown's loss dropped it into son closes.

Mummasburg and Bendersville battled to a 4 to 4 tie when darkness ended its game Tuesday in the fifth inning, and that game will probably have to be played, possibly next week, to clarify the top position in the league.

Team officials are scheduled to meet next Thursday at 8 o'clock at the American Legion Home, Baltimore St., to set up a schedule for the playoff title competition, and this Sunday's games should tell the story of who will play who to resolve ties that most likely will still be in existence after the final scheduled games Sunday.

MAKE LETTERS TO OFFICIALS BRIEF, TERSE

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON (P — If you feel the urge to write to your congressman, make your letter brief.

Confine yourself to one subject.

Write legibly.

Letters which follow these rules are the ones that get the most attention, according to Democratic Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand of California who gives some handy tips on writing to congress in "Roll Call," the newspaper of Capitol Rill.

"Letters that run for four or five pages aren't apt to be read thoroughly," the congressman says. "We received one that rambled on for eight pages, covering every subject from the Bible to the hydrogen bomb. At the end the writer added a P.S.: 'Please disregard what I've said in this letter. After re-reading it I've changed my mind about certain points, but after writing it I didn't want to throw it away."

Joy Of Mail

But, the congressman hastens to add: "This doesn't mean you should write as briefly as the unsigned writer who sent in only two words on the back of a postcard: 'Drop dead.'"

Rep. Hiestand says one of the joys of a congressman is his daily mail

"With it he takes the daily pulse of his district," he explains. "From it he learns what his neighbors want — and why. Mail guides but not always determines a congressman's vote on the close issues. A congressman's job is to speak FOR the district, and when the people speak strongly he does not ignore their voice."

Operating one of the busiest post affices in the nation, the House Office Building receives five mail deliveries a day. There are less frequent deliveries on Sundays and holidays, too.

Someone figured out, Rep. Hiestand says, that the average conpressman gets about 545 pieces of mail a day, an increase of almost 16 per cent from a year ago.

Compliments In Mail

"Most of the letters are complimentary," he says. "Practically all of them are respectful, even though the writers may disagree violently with the opinions expressed publicly by the congressman. This would indicate to me a public confidence in the representative system of government despite the varying personal opinions held by the constituents of their individual congressmen."

Another bit of advice: "People should, whenever possible, print their names and addresses so that the letters may be answered. It isn't necessary to type. Abuse doesn't pay. The old axiom still holds that you can catch more flies with honey than vinegar. And if you want attention, don't write anonymously."

Rattlesnake Waver Panics Greasy Greek

HYDEN, Ky. (P) — Snakes alive, that was the trouble at Greasy Creek.

Sheriff Carl Farmer got a report a man was poking a big rattlesnake in the faces of pedestrians and motorists — reaching inside the car to wave it in the driver's face.

"People were running to the mountain, through the river, and some were leaving their cars on the road," a newspaper account said.

The sheriff said he arrested the gent — who had been drinking considerably and had parted ways with the snake.

Hazleton Industry Agency Successful

HAZELTON, Pa. (#) — A selfimprovement agency of this area proved already it has more than lived up to its name.

The volunteer organization set up to bring new industry into the Hazleton section, has collected $692,654 to date in various enterprises.

They call it the CAN-DO Drive.

MISSING, ONE SEWER

Manire dug and dug but he couldn't locate the sewer he paid for 40 years ago in an assessment levied by the city.

He reported his troubles to the City Council. City Engineer John C. Thompson said that the sewer is 55 feet from Manire's property. It would cost $200 to extend it there, and he submitted that it was the city's duty to do so. The council agreed and approved the recommendation.

WATER BRINGS LION

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. A — A mountain lion was sighted on two consecutive nights at the edge of the city, far from its usual mountain hideouts. Some residents theorized the big cat may have been looking for a drink, since the mountains had been dry for several weeks.

The extent of home improvement activity is indicated by a report from the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau estimating that more than 60 per cent of all shower bath equipment now being manufactured is installed in existing homes five years old and older.

FACES FEDERAL CHARGES AFTER KIDNAP - ATTACK

LEWISBURG, Pa. (A) - Harry Bloomer has been committed to jail in Williamsport to await trial on federal charges of kidnapping and attackking a 17-year-old babysitter.

The 23 - year - old Youngstown, Ohio, man was arraigned here before a U.S. commissioner yesterday, only hours after he was captured while peacefully eating a meal in a farmhouse near Wellsboro in north central Pennsylva-

No date was set for his trial. Officials said it would be held either here or in the federal court in Scranton.

"Perfect Gentleman"

State and county police took Bloomer into custody at the farm home of Mrs. Frederick Keck after they had been tipped that Bloomer's car had been spotted in the neighborhood.

Mrs. Keck said Bloomer had asked for something to eat and offered to work for his meal. She said he told her that he was trying to earn money to go to Ohio to visit an ailing mother.

She described him as a "perfect gentleman."

Said He's "Engaged"

Bloomer's capture ended a 15state manhunt that began 20 hours previously when 17-year-old Betsy Long of Sweet Valley, Pa., staggered into a service station at Wayland in western New York and told police she had been kidnapped the night before and assautled twice.

Miss Long said Bloomer took her from a home in Fairmount Springs, Luzerne County, while she was sitting with three small children. She said Bloomer then drove through the night, stopping twice to assault her.

Bloomer told police he was engaged to the girl and that they had been planning to run away and get married.

The Church of the Foursquare Gospel was pioneered in Gettysburg in 1934 by the Revs. Harold L. and Eliza M Myers. A large tent was purchased and pitched at Fairfield and later at various places in and around Gettysburg.
